

LEAN CANVAS — WASTED

The Productivity App That Doesn't Care If You Succeed

PROBLEM

- People underestimate how much time they spend mindlessly scrolling
- Existing screen-time apps are restrictive, judgmental, or overly complex
- No simple tool for honest self-awareness without behavioral nudges

SOLUTION

- Manual swipe-to-track timer — user decides what counts as "wasted"
- Quick +5 / -5 min adjustments for retroactive honesty
- Visual calendar with progress rings for long-term awareness
- Auto-stop at bedtime

UNIQUE VALUE PROPOSITION

- Radical honesty over control. No blocks, no limits, no guilt — just a mirror for your habits
- Privacy-first: all data stays on device, no accounts, no cloud
- Beautifully minimal dark UI that doesn't feel like a productivity tool

UNFAIR ADVANTAGE

- Anti-productivity positioning is contrarian and memorable
- Zero infrastructure cost (no backend, no accounts)
- Word-of-mouth virality through self-deprecating brand voice
- Extremely low churn risk — no subscription fatigue

CUSTOMER SEGMENTS

- Primary: Gen Z & Millennials (18–35) aware of doomscrolling but not wanting a "digital detox" app
- Secondary: Productivity-curious users who've bounced off Screen Time / Digital Wellbeing
- Early adopters: Self-improvement communities, indie app enthusiasts

KEY METRICS

- DAU / MAU ratio (stickiness)
- Sessions logged per user per day
- 7-day retention rate
- Organic installs & App Store conversion rate
- Widget adoption rate

HIGH-LEVEL CONCEPT

- "A stopwatch for your bad habits — no judgment included"
- Screen Time meets a brutally honest mirror
- The anti-productivity productivity app

CHANNELS

- iOS App Store & Google Play (ASO-driven)
- TikTok / Reels — short, self-aware content
- Reddit (r/productivity, r/nosurf, r/getdisciplined)
- Product Hunt launch
- Tech & lifestyle blog features

COST STRUCTURE

- Apple Developer Program ($99/yr)
- Google Play Developer ($25 one-time)
- Design & development (founder time)
- Marketing / content creation
- No server costs — fully offline architecture

REVENUE STREAMS

- Freemium: Core timer free forever
- Pro unlock (one-time): Advanced analytics, custom themes, export data
- Tip jar / Support the dev
- No ads — aligns with anti-distraction brand
